60-Day Notice to the Department of Energy and the Regents of the University of California for Violations of the Clean Water Act at Los Alamos National Laboratory
Dated May 23, 2006
Available at www.nuclearactive.org

- I. Introduction

- II. Factual Background
  - A. The Los Alamos/Pueblo Canyon Watershed
  - B. The Sandia Canyon Watershed
  - C. The Mortandad Canyon Watershed
  - D. The Pajarito Canyon Watershed
  - E. The Water/Canon de Valle Watershed
  - F. The Ancho Canyon Watershed
  - G. The Chaquehui Watershed

- III. Regulatory Background
  - A. The Clean Water Act
  - B. LANL's NPDES Multi-Sector General Permit (MSGP) for the Sites
  - C. The FFCA and LANL's Individual Stormwater NPDES Permit Application for the Sites

- IV. Clean Water Act Violations
  - A. Monitoring Violations
    - 1. Failure to conduct quarterly visual monitoring
    - 2. Failure to conduct the requisite benchmark monitoring
    - 3. Failure to conduct compliance monitoring
    - 4. Failure to obtain representative monitoring data
  - B. Reporting Violations and Exceedances
    - 1. Failure to submit analytical monitoring (benchmark and compliance) results for each outfall on a discharge monitoring report (DMR) form
    - 2. Failure to produce a site map identifying all outfalls
  - C. Pollution Control Violations
    - 1. Failure to have "effluent limitations" in place for each point source
    - 2. Failure to have best management practices (BMPs) in place (or a plan to implement BMPs) for all potential pollution sources
    - 3. Failure to conduct a comprehensive facility inspection
    - 4. Failure to maintain effective BMPs
    - 5. Failure to avoid causing violations of water quality standards
  - D. Unauthorized Discharges

1. Sites not identified in the MSGP or surface water pollution prevention plan (SWPPP)
2. The discharge of contaminants - via a hydrological connection between tributary ground and surface water - from LANL to seeps and springs along the Rio Grande

V. Federal Facility Compliance Agreement (FFC) Violation

VI. Conclusion

Attachment No. 1 - Areas of Concern
